Approaching Triple Exchange Holiday Keeps Speculation in the Doldrums

FRACTIONAL CHANGES IN PRICES OF STOCKS

Business Light, and Trading Altogether Professional.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.-The stock mar averaged slightly higher. The efforts of a bull party in Atchison continued, the stock ruling % higher. Erie, Pennsyl. vania, Reading, Southern Pacific, St Paul and many others were unchanged Sugar sold % lower, ex-dividend. Amalgamated Copper lost 1/4, and General Electric rose 1 per cent. Bonds showed a better tone than stocks, but no price changes worth noting.

The market this morning has been o a holiday character. Business is light and entirely professional in its nature. As a rule fluctuations were limited to extremely small fractions.

The strength of the grain market was without particular influence. There was a little disposition to support Atchison, which ruled slightly higher. Reading rallied a trifle and showed a little more steadiness. Inactivity characterized the industrials, in which the fluctuations Saturday, September 5, and Monday, Sepwere without significance. Amalgamated Copper was steady.

Few issues scored quotations in the first hour. In the local traction group, the only notable feature was an advance a time better support of cotton futures in Metropolitan Securities of 1 per cent. at the opening of the cotton exchange The speculation promises to remain in this morning, in face of cables that the doldrums under the influence of the caused general disappointment. Mr. approaching triple stock exchange boli- Brown himself bid the September up to day. Government bonds unchanged.

An attempt to do business with Lon-don today proved a flat failure. Cables were interchanged and occasional differences of 1/8 per cent were found, but ing helped by the cool weather throughit is to be doubted whether 500 shares out the South. But while at first offerof actual business was carried through ings proved rather light, as if room There was no profit in what was done. There has been little or nothing of general interest in the local market.
